Commissioner Wise announced that the car cruise for the benefit of "Make A Wish" this past Friday was a success. We greatly appreciate and thank the Ohio Valley Mopar Club for hosting these events for local Charities. A special group of people that donate their time, resources, and many times at their own expense to help benefit the community. Also, want to thank the Volunteers for "Make A Wish", Jean and Keith Howard for also donating their time and efforts for such a great cause. Want to also thank, Commissioner Andreozzi for donating, at his expense, and his time cooking for this event. And a huge thank you to those that attended and graciously donated to this foundation.

A check will be presented at next week's commission meeting.
